
The Newfoundland and Labrador Retired Teachers' Association

Constitution and By-laws

Constitution of the RTANL

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of the organization shall be the Retired Teachers' Association of Newfoundland and Labrador (RTANL).

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES

- A. To maintain and increase professional and social contacts;
- B. To maintain a liaison with the Newfoundland and Labrador Teachers' Association (NLTA);
- C. To speak for retired teachers on matters that affect them by virtue of the fact that they are retirees in society;
- D. To improve the financial status of teachers retired under the Newfoundland and Labrador Teachers' Pension Act;
- E. To keep informed on developments in education and to support public education;
- F. To encourage our members to be concerned about and become involved with social issues.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

A. Active

Any person who retires pursuant to the Newfoundland and Labrador Teachers' Pension Act shall be eligible for Active Membership in the RTANL.

B. Associate

The following persons are eligible for Associate Membership in the RTANL:

ARTICLE V: MEMBERSHIP FEES

- A. Membership fees for Active and Associate Members shall be established by resolution at a general meeting of the Association.
- B. Fees shall be divided fifty-fifty (50-50) between the Provincial Executive and the Divisions, the fifty per cent (50%) that goes to the Divisions being shared on a per capita basis.
- C. The percentage of a Division's funds to be given to a Regional shall be decided by the Division Executive in consultation with the Executive of the Regional, and shall be subject to review every year.

ARTICLE VI: MEMBERSHIP YEAR

The membership year shall extend from September 1st to August 31st of the next calendar year.

ARTICLE VII: STRUCTURE

- A. The RTANL shall be composed of a Provincial Executive plus a number of Divisions, each Division having the authority to set up a Regional where deemed necessary, provided that twenty-five (25) or more interested Active Members of the Association in a distant area indicate that they wish to form a Regional.
- B. The number of Divisions shall be determined according to the following criteria:
 - 1. There shall be a minimum of three (3) Divisions, namely: Central, Eastern, and Western.
 - 2. Where a majority of the Active Members of an established Regional so desire, the Regional may, with the approval of the Provincial Executive, become a Division in its own right.

ARTICLE VIII: PROVINCIAL EXECUTIVE

- A. The Provincial Executive shall consist of: President, Vice-President, Immediate Past President, Secretary, Treasurer, and four (4) Members-at-Large, provided that there are not more than three (3) Members of the Executive from any one (1) Division and that the total Executive Membership shall not exceed nine (9).

- B. The Members of the Provincial Executive, with the exception of the Immediate Past President, shall be elected at the Biennial General Meeting (BGM) of the Association for a term of two (2) years.
- C. Election of the Provincial Executive shall be by secret ballot.
- D. Whenever a vacancy occurs on the Provincial Executive, through any cause, the Executive shall name an Active Member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the next BGM, provided that the appointment adheres to Item A. of this Article.

ARTICLE IX: COMMITTEES

The Provincial Executive shall appoint from time to time such Standing and Ad Hoc Committees as may be deemed necessary to carry out the work of the Association.

ARTICLE X: MEETINGS

A. Provincial Executive Meetings

- 1. The Provincial Executive shall meet at least three (3) times a year.
- 2. Provincial Executive Meetings may be held via Teleconferences when deemed necessary.

B. General Meetings of the Association

1. Biennial General Meeting

The Provincial Executive shall, in every even-numbered year, hold a Biennial General Meeting (BGM) of the Membership in October or any such time as determined by the Executive.

2. Special Meetings

The Provincial Executive is empowered to call a Special Meeting of the Association as deemed necessary.

ARTICLE XI: LIAISON

A. With NLTA

- 1. The RTANL shall maintain an ongoing liaison with NLTA as a means of communication between the two Associations.
- 2. Upon invitation from NLTA Executive, the President of RTANL, or designate, shall represent RTANL at the NLTA BGM.

B. With Other Organizations

The RTANL shall cooperate whenever possible with other organizations/ associations whose objectives do not conflict with those of RTANL, and whose purposes reflect the concerns of our Members.

ARTICLE XII: AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended only by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Active Members present and voting at the RTANL BGM, and only after a one (1)-month Notice of Motion to Amend has been sent to each Active Member of the Association.

[This Constitution was officially adopted at BGM 2006.]

BY-LAWS of the RTANL

ARTICLE I: QUORUM

- A. At the Biennial General Meeting and at Special or Emergency Meetings, a majority of the Provincial Executive and at least fifty (50) Active Members of the Association shall constitute a quorum.
- B. At Provincial Executive Meetings, a majority of the Executive Members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE II: MEETINGS

A. Provincial Executive Meetings

1. The Provincial Executive shall meet at least three (3) times a year.
