

High School Teachers' Perceptions of Their Working Environment in Newfoundland: A Grounded Theory Study

About the Researcher

Dr. Lynda Younghusband completed her Doctor of Philosophy from the Faculty of Medicine (Clinical Epidemiology) in October 2005, and her Master of Education (Educational Psychology, Counselling) in 1990. She is a graduate of the Ottawa Civic Hospital School of Nursing, holds a Diploma from the Royal Canberra Hospital, Australia, in Community Health Nursing, as well as a Bachelor of Vocational Education from Memorial University. She was a teacher with the Avalon East School Board for many years and is presently a sessional lecturer in the Faculty of Education and School of Nursing at Memorial. Dr. Younghusband has presented to several professional organizations on her work on teacher stress and has also published articles on the same.