

IT'S ABOUT TIME:

A Study of the Impact of Workload
on Teachers and Students

About the Researcher

Dr. David Dibbon was an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Education at Memorial University. His specialty area was Educational Administration and he has written and published numerous research reports and articles on innovation, leadership and organizational change, teacher supply and demand, teacher workload, teacher education, and gender differences in education. Before joining the Faculty of Education he was a teacher and a school administrator working in rural and urban areas of the province. He retired as principal at Bishops College in 2000. During his tenure at Bishops he was recognized for his innovative approach to leadership and was awarded the Fortis Leadership Award for School Administrators in 1994, and both the Canadian Association of Principals and the Newfoundland School Administrators Distinguished Principal Award 1999.

NOTE: Dr. Dibbon passed away on Dec. 13, 2010.

back to main page