Business from Standing Committees

Table Officers

- Executive will recommend to the 2007 BGM the necessary amendments to the NLTA by-laws in order to eliminate the Professional Relations Committee and implement the Professional Relations Dispute Resolution Process.
- Honorary Membership will be bestowed upon Dr. Myrle Vokey at the 2007 BGM.
- The NLTA will request to be included among the groups laying wreaths during remembrance ceremonies at the St. John's War Memorial on July 1 and November 11.
- A communiqué will be issued to all members from the President advising of the NLTA's position on, and the potential negative implications of, adding minutes to the school day to bank time for professional development. The President will also write the President of the School Administrators Council outlining the NLTA position on this issue.
- The proposed Executive meeting schedule for 2007-08 was approved as follows: September 13-15; November 1 (followed by Joint Council on November 2-3); January 19-20; March 27 (followed by Joint Council on March 28 and 29); June 6-7.

For further information on business of Table Officers contact Kevin Foley, President or Edward Hancock, Executive Director.

Communications/Political Action Committee

- The theme for Education Week 2007 will be Live Healthy! Learn Well!
- The opening ceremonies for Education Week 2007 will take place at a school in the Cormack Trail area.

For further information on business of the Communications/Political Action Committee contact Jackie Maloney, Chair or Lesley-Ann Browne, Communications Officer.

Equity Issues in Education Committee

The current expenses for child care will be increased to a payment of the minimum wage per hour to a maximum of $80 per day for a 24-hour period.

For further information contact Paul Pinsent, Chair or Beverley Park, Professional Development Division.

Membership Benefits and Services Committee

- The NLTA will communicate with all school district directors that the stipend provided by the MUN Faculty of Education for taking student teacher interns be distributed on the basis of $250 to the cooperating teacher and $50 to the principal.
- The NLTA will approach the MUN Faculty of Education to lobby for an increase in the stipend paid to cooperating teachers to reflect the percentage of increase in tuition at MUN since the internship program for Education students was initiated and that the stipend should be increased on a go forward basis by a percentage reflecting any future tuition increases.

For further information contact Edward Moore, Chair or Stefanie Tuff, Benefits and Economic Services Division.

Professional Issues Committee

The proposed guidelines for a new award to recognize individuals outside the K-12 system for their outstanding contribution to teachers and the teaching profession, either through their role as advocates or through a relationship with the NLTA resulting in a positive impact on teaching and learning, were accepted. The cost of the award will be taken from the Centennial Fund.

JOINT COUNCIL

Association Priorities

A detailed review of the Association priorities for 2006-07 was presented to Joint Council. The NLTA administrative staff updated Provincial Executive and Branch Presidents on various elements of the priorities including objectives, timelines and action updates. The priorities are: quality of teachers' work life/contract negotiations; membership awareness; and professionalism/accountability.

For further information contact Kevin Foley, President or Edward Hancock, Executive Director.

Pre-Budget Consultations for the 2007-09 NLTA Budget

Joint Council was provided with the draft NLTA budgets for 2007-08 and 2008-09. Joint Council was asked for input to assist the Finance and Property Committee in the preparation of its final draft to the Provincial Executive. The draft budget will then be presented to BGM 2007 for debate and approval.

For further information contact Dean Ingram, Chair or Jim Fox, NLTA Treasurer.

Teacher Certification Regulations

A presentation was made to Joint Council by Mr. Robert Parsons, Registrar for Teacher Certification, Department of Education, as well as Bill Chaisson and Beverley Park, NLTA Representatives on the Teacher Certification Committee. The presentation included background information on the committee and regulations, chronology of the work of the committee, and issues surrounding credit for professional development. Joint Council members had an opportunity to make comments and ask questions.

For further information contact Bill Chaisson, Provincial Executive or Beverley Park, Professional Development Division.

Proposed Branch Viability Guidelines

The proposed Branch Viability Guidelines were presented to Joint Council for review and discussion along with NLTA policy changes concerning these guidelines. Branch Presidents had the opportunity to discuss the proposed guidelines in small group sessions and to provide input to Provincial Executive on the same. The feedback from Joint Council will be reviewed by the Membership Benefits and Services Committee with possible recommendations to Provincial Executive.

NLTA Membership Database

The NLTA is in the process of establishing its own membership database. This database will be used for internal purposes only to allow the Association to provide the best possible professional services to teachers and to communicate directly to the membership. Teachers have been asked to update their current contact information on a personalized form, including details on years of teaching, areas of specialization, other personal information, as well as special interest council information, and return to the NLTA by the end of November.

For further information contact Lesley-Ann Browne, Communications Officer, or Mary Ann Grimes, Assistant to the Executive Director.

NLTA Policy Changes

A number of changes in policy statement since the 2005 Biennial General Meeting were approved by Joint Council. These policies provide direction for continuity of decisions and guidance to those who take positions on behalf of the Association. The amended policies include: investments; scent-sensitive workplace; special interest councils; election of the President and Vice-President by province-wide vote; negotiating team for provincial negotiations; pre-retirement counselors; length of Kindergarten day; equality and access of opportunity; substitute teachers; and Joint Council.

For further information contact Kevin Foley, President or Edward Hancock, Executive Director.

School Board-Teacher Liaison Committees

A presentation on the School Board-Teacher Liaison Committees was made to Joint Council by Executive Director Edward Hancock. The presentation included an overview of the committees, general objectives, how teacher members are appointed, the role of the teacher representatives, and a sample of topics that are usually discussed at the committee meetings.

For further information contact GERALYN COSTELLO, Assistant to the President.

Advisory Motions from Joint Council to Provincial Executive

A number of advisory motions for the Provincial Executive were approved during the course of the Joint Council meeting, as follows:

- That the steering committee ensure that Branch Presidents' topics begin on the first morning of a Joint Council meeting.
- That the NLTA poll the membership regarding the three-week pay gap which occurs for teachers every five to six years.
- That the NLTA hold a session on Occupational Health and Safety at BGM 2007.
- That a scheduled information session be held at BGM 2007 on school safety dealing with various issues on teacher safety and teacher rights.
- That the NLTA examine hiring practices in other educational jurisdictions, including provincial governments and the Public Service Commission of Canada to form a hiring policy for teachers in substitute and replacement roles.
- That the NLTA contact the Occupational Health and Safety Division of the Provincial Fire Commissioner's Office with the intent of having each classroom in the province classified and on each door be posted a maximum ceiling for the number of people allowed in each room.

For further information contact Kevin Foley, President or Edward Hancock, Executive Director.

Discussion Topics

The following topics were reviewed by Provincial Executive and/or Joint Council for follow-up or further direction: teacher induction; discretionary/family/unpaid leave; confidentiality; student discipline; hiring of student assistants; three-week pay gap; supervision of students; technical support; scheduling of parent-teacher reports; school insurance; school safety; curriculum nights; substitute days; violence in schools; extension of school day; occupational health and safety; substitute teachers; and the NLTA email groups.
